All student delegates shall

1. Register on time with the school advisor and school delegation and not leave the NMASC activity until it ends. A delegate may leave early with written requests from both parent/guardian and school advisor. A delegate who leaves early must sign out in the activity headquarters and may not return to the activity.
2. Have no guests at any time or meetings during the activity with any non-registered person.
3. Not by any conduct, act, force, or threat deprive another of the exercise of personal rights and responsibilities, nor engage in any conduct which causes disruption of any lawful mission, process, or function of the activity. (This includes social media, texting, or any mobile application.)
4. Observe NMASC rules which will be presented in writing to each school advisor and will be announced at the opening session of the NMASC activity. A delegate shall be financially responsible for any damage to host school, event location, hotel or residence hall, or NMASC property.
5. With respect to NMASC activities involving overnight stay, there are to be NO MIXED GROUPS in hotel or residence hall rooms; that is, no boys in girls' rooms or vice versa, unless supervised by a chaperone before curfew. Delegates shall observe their room assignment at all times, which can only be changed upon approval of the school advisor, and Executive Director. Regardless of delegates' gender identity or sexual orientation, there will be no sexual conduct between delegates at hotels or residence halls where delegates will be staying overnight for the NMASC activity.
6. Observe all local, state, and federal laws and regulations. Understand that the use of alcohol, tobacco (including e-cigs or vape pens), marijuana, or illegal drugs is strictly prohibited. Not possess, handle, or transmit any object that could reasonably be considered a weapon.
7. Abide by requests of the conference staff, security, and/or any adult connected with the NMASC activity.
8. Report to an NMASC activity at least five minutes before the time for it to begin. If a student is not present at an NMASC activity the adult in charge shall notify conference staff immediately.
9. Realize that if they are to receive the greatest benefits from the NMASC activity, they must be willing to participate actively and appropriately at all times.
10. Understand that in no case will NMASC or the activity be considered responsible for supervision of students before the school delegation registers at the activity or after the final adjournment of the activity.
11. Display the appropriate behavior and attire which is representative of any student council position. Wear name tag / wristband at all times, as directed. Refrain from bringing controversial clothing to the activity. Casual attire appropriate for school wear is suitable within the guidelines of the general NMASC rules. Appropriate attire is required for event sit-down dinner/banquet – dress to impress but don't dress less.
12. Accept that an infraction of NMASC rules will be met with consequences, which may include being sent home (at the parent/guardian expense) and that the student may be barred from participating in NMASC activities for one (1) year. The principal, advisor, and parent/guardian shall be informed of the infraction.
13. I understand that COVID-19 and its variants continue to be fluid, and student delegates will comply with the current executive orders and requirements of the venue at the time and place of the NMASC activity If a registered student does not feel well at all, prior to traveling to the event, they will not attend. Honesty matters.

Student Agreement

As a delegate to this NMASC activity, I will abide by all policies and guidelines established by NMASC and set forth above in this Student Participant Commitment/Parent Agreement Form for NMASC. I will strive to be a worthy representative of my school by contributing my best efforts to the success of the activity.

Parent/Guardian Agreement

As a parent/guardian, I agree to all the policies and guidelines established by the New Mexico Association of Student Councils.

By submitting this Parent Agreement, I hereby grant the New Mexico Association of Student Councils (NMASC) the right to take photos and/or videos of my child, _____, during conference activities from (event dates) _____ and to use such photos and/or videos of my child for editorial or advertising publication processes, whether electronic, print, digital, or electronic publishing via the internet. My signed submission of this Parent Agreement also indicates that I agree I will not make any monetary and/or other claims, whether legal or equitable, against NMASC for the use of the photos and/or videos and that I will indemnify and hold harmless NMASC and its directors, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors from and against all claims which arise out of, relate to, or result from the use of my child's photos and/or videos.

With respect to NMASC activities involving overnight stay, there are to be NO MIXED GROUPS in hotel or residence hall rooms; that is, no boys in girls' rooms or vice versa, unless supervised by a chaperone before curfew. Delegates shall observe their room assignment at all times, which can only be changed upon approval of the school advisor, and Executive Director. Regardless of delegates' gender identity or sexual orientation, there will be no sexual conduct between delegates at hotels or residence halls where delegates will be staying overnight for the NMASC activity.

I understand that COVID 19 and its variants continue to be fluid, and student delegates will comply with the current executive orders and requirements of the venue of the event during the dates of the NMASC activity. If a registered student does not feel well at all, prior to traveling to the event, they will not attend. Honesty matters. If a registered student falls ill during the NMASC event, the parent will be called to pick up their child to take them home.

I authorize NMASC and its directors, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors to consent, on my behalf for _____ (insert child's name), to any emergency medical/hospital care or treatment to be rendered upon the advice of any licensed physician. I agree to be responsible for all necessary charges incurred by any hospitalization or treatment rendered pursuant to this authorization.

Parent/guardian understand that NMASC assumes no legal liability associated with the event. The parent/guardian signing this agreement hereby assumes all risks associated with attendance and participation at the NMASC activity and agree to hold harmless, not sue, defend, indemnify, and release NMASC and its administrators, agents, insurers, reinsurers, officers, directors, employees, attorneys, as well as their employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, and reinsurers from all claims of any nature which may arise in connection with their child's attendance/participation at the NMASC activity.
