

Red Mountain Middle School

Project Be Well

Student Mental Health

As Red Mountain Council, We decided to have a series of fun activities to let students have something to look forward to after coming back from Winter Break. This included some afterschool programs that help the students develop different skills

We've sponsored a Back to School Bash to let the students get back into a positive attitude to come back into school

